Q.1. Tick the correct answers from the options given:
   i) Bihu is celebrated in ……… State
      a) Bihar    b) Assam    c) odisha    d) Manipur
   ii) Which one is not necessary to make BHELA GHAR?
      a) wood    b) Cement    c) Bamboo    d) Thatch
   iii) ……………. is the harvesting festival.
      a) Diwali    b) Dushura    c) holi    d) Bihu
   iv) Bora is the common variety of ………. in Assam.
      a) Wheat    b) Maize    c) Rice    d) Ragi
   v) A famous dance of Tamilnadu is ……..
      a) Bhiu    b) Bhathanatiyam    c) Kathakali    d) odissi

Q.2. True or False
   a) Bhela Ghara is made of grass and bamboo.          [ ]
   b) Aarti put mehendi her palms at her uncle's wedding. [ ]
   c) There is no law against cutting trees.            [ ]
   d) All students in primary school should be provided with mid-day meal. [ ]

Q.3. Look at the picture and write the activity.
   a) ________________  b) ________________  c) ________________
   d) ________________  e) ________________ Q.4. Fill in the blanks:
   a) Aarti had a lot of fun at her ___________ wedding
   b) All students plan a ____________.
   c) Bihu is a _____________festival in Assam.
   d) ____________ and ____________ are the common varieties of rice used in Assam.
   e) The women in Assam wear ____________.

Q.5. Answer these questions:
   a) Name the occasion in which we eat together.
      Ans. ___________________________________________________________________
          ____________________________________________________________
   b) Have you ever had a party in your class? When? What did you all do?
      Ans. ___________________________________________________________________
          ____________________________________________________________
   c) What all did you eat?
      Ans. ___________________________________________________________________
          ____________________________________________________________
   d) What are something that you can do to make the party more fun for everyone? Discuss.
      Ans. ___________________________________________________________________
          ____________________________________________________________

Q.6. What do you know about mid-day meal?
   Ans. ________________________________________________________________
        __________________________________________________________________
        ________________________________________________________________
        ________________________________________________________________
        ________________________________________________________________

Q.7. What do you know about Bihu? Write about this festival.
   Ans. ________________________________________________________________
        __________________________________________________________________
        ________________________________________________________________
        ________________________________________________________________
        ________________________________________________________________

Q.8. Which festival is celebrated in your state? Write about it.
   Ans. ________________________________________________________________
        __________________________________________________________________
        ________________________________________________________________
        ________________________________________________________________
        ________________________________________________________________
Answer Key

Q.1. i) b) ii) b) iii) d) iv) c) v) b)

Q.2. a) True b) true c) d) True

Q.3. a) maizi b) Bihu c) class party d) mid-day meal e) langar

Q.4. a) uncle’s b) class party c) harvest d) Bora, Cheva e) mekhala chador Q.5. a) On festivals, marriage, birthdays, picnic, etc.

b) Yes, we had a party. It was on occasion of Community Lunch organized in my school. We sang, danced and enjoyed it very much.
c) We ate puri, cake, halwa, choola, kheer, noodles, etc.
d) We can invite poor children to join our party.

Q.6. There is a provision of mid-day meal in all primary schools run by government. Because many children in our country are not able to get even one full meal every day. Many of them do not even go to school. Those who go to school without eating properly, cannot study properly. Some years ago, the supreme court of our country gave an important decision that all children in primary school should be provided with hot, cooked food. This is the right of every child.

Q.7. Bhihu is a harvest festival in Assam. In villages people contribute money to buy Bora rice, firewood, Bamboo and Mezi. They make Bhela Ghar using grass and bamboo. They set it alight and sing and dance. The whole village cook together and enjoy Cheva rice and pitha in the feast. Women wear mekhala – chador. Boys and men play the drum and dance round the fire. They sing and dance.

Q.8. Karma is celebrated in Jharkhand. Tribal people Ho, Munda, Oraon Kharia, Santha, Kurmi, Oriya, etc. of Jharkhand celebrate it. It is a harvest festival of the state. It is also celebration of nature and fertility. They offer prayer to the Karma tree. People fast on this day and seek the blessings of Karma Devta. Karma folk songs and dance are very popular.